Volunteering with SCDA

Our valued teams of volunteers play a vital role within SCDA. We recruit volunteers across our projects and services from all ages, abilities and backgrounds. Please contact us at the telephone number or email above for more information.

SCDA works in five key areas across East Sussex

- Employability
- Advice & Inclusion
- Community Development
- Health & Well-being
- Care & Support

We ensure:

- User and local community involvement to identify gaps in services and development of new projects to meet community needs
- We offer a range of integrated and holistic approaches to service delivery for those most vulnerable in our community
- Continuous quality improvement including review of individual and community impact
- Support of effective partnerships between voluntary, statutory and private sectors to address identified community needs
- Development of sustainable sources of funding including a range of social enterprises.

Our head office is at:
Denton Island Community Centre,
Denton Island, Newhaven BN9 9BA.

Community Development

Newhaven

Denton Island Community Centre is the welcoming venue for our Newhaven Young People and Family services and offers a wide range of space for rent to community groups and others. Our brand new Youth Centre, due to be completed Summer 2019, will provide a safe space for local young people.

Nursery

Denton Island Nursery also benefits from the peaceful setting, is rated Ofsted 'Outstanding' and provides affordable and high quality child care.
